

WEDNESDAY NOVEMBER 10, 2010

5:30 pm -7:00 pm Pre-Conference Event

Recording Revolution: Working With the Documents of Haiti's Revolutionary History

Location: tbd

Chair: tbd

Participants:

- Madison Smartt Bell, Goucher University
- Julia Gaffield, Duke University
- Ted Widmer, Brown University

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 11, 2010

5:00-6:00 pm Registration
Location: Lobby of the Watson Institute

6:00-8:00 pm Provost's and Presidential Reception
Speakers: TBD
Location: Lobby of the Watson Institute

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 2010

8:00 am – 4:30 pm Registration
Location: Lobby of the Watson Institute

8:00 am - 9:15 am CONCURRENT SESSIONS-1

Session 1-A: Seeing the Earth Shake, Hearing the Earthquake: Media Images and Coverage

Location: Joukowsky Forum, Watson Institute

Chair: Régine Michelle Jean-Charles, Boston College

Panelists:

- Régine Michelle Jean-Charles, Boston College, Haiti parmi les vivants: Images of Haitians by Haitians.
- Manoucheka Celeste, University of Washington, Haiti's Disasters: Images in Mainstream Media.
- Stephanie Larrieux, Clark University, Mediated Sympathies: Imagery, Narrative, and the Humanitarian Appeal--Haiti's Earthquake 2010.

Session 1-B "Help for Haiti:" Perspectives on the role of Local and International Assistance

Location: Room 8, Sharpe Refectory

Chair: Millery Polyné, New York University

Panelists:

- Pierre Minn, McGill University, The Moral Economy of International Medical Aid to Haiti.
- Grace Sanders, University of Michigan, Third World Disney: Slumming and Philanthropic Tourism in Pre Earthquake Port-au-Prince 1945-1970

Session 1-C Roundtable: Pre/Post Quake Vodou: A Dialogue on Fears Threats and the Uprooting of an Entire Cultural System

Location: Chancellors Dining Room A, Sharpe Refectory

Chair: Gina Ulysse, Wesleyan University

Panelists:

- Yanique Hume, University of the West Indies, Cave Hill
- Claudine Michel, University of California, Santa Barbara
- Kate Ramsey, University of Miami
- Mimi Sheller, Drexel University

Session 1-D: Between God and the State: Internationalism and the Duvalier dictatorship

Location: Chancellors Dining Room B, Sharpe Refectory

Chair: François Pierre-Louis, Queens College, CUNY

Panelists:

- Wanda Williams, Morgan State University, Haiti and Nixon: A Pandora's Box?
- Kate Hodgson, Wilberforce Institute University of Hull, 'Dieu Dessalines et Duvalier': History, Messianic time and the politics of Duvalierism.
- Wien Weibert Arthus, La Sorbonne, International Aid Might Not Be Effective: Evaluating Haitian-American relations regarding the Alliance for Progress(1961-1963).

Session 1-E: From the Ground up: Care giving and Human potential after the Earthquake

Location: Mickenny Conference Room, Watson Institute

Chair: Guerda Nicolas, University of Miami

Panelists:

- Linda Tavernier-Almada, University of California Berkeley, Beyond the Bottleneck.
- Michel Alexandre Sacha Vington, Vaya Institute, Building the Human Potential Infrastructure of Haiti: Taking on the "Bigger Bagay".
- John Mazzeo, DePaul University, Earthquake-Related Seizman and Techniques for Psychosocial Caregiving.

Session 1-F:

Location: Library, Watson Institute

Chair: Alice Baker

Panelists

- Cédric Audebert, National Center for Scientific Research, France, Spatial Strategies of Haitian businesses in the Diaspora between 2001 and 2009; The case of Miami, FL
- Randy Mont Reynaud and Elisee Abraham, If Pigs Could Fly-Haiti, Nou Degaje: Making it in Rural and Urban Haiti.

Session 1-G: Use and Abuse in the 19th Century: Perspectives on Haitian Writers

Location: Birklund Ballroom, Watson Institute

Chair: Adam John, Albright College

Panelists:

- Jeremy Popkin, University of Kentucky, The Origins of Haitian Exile Literature: Mon Odysée.
- Michael Reyes, Cornell University, Nous n'avons qu'un frêle canot d'écore: Stella et la question de l'écriture de l'histoire haïtienne.
- Marlene L. Daut, Claremont College, The Uses of Haiti in 19th century: Baron de Vastey and the US Press.

9:30- 10:45 am OPENING CEREMONY

Location:

Speakers:

Opening Keynote Address

Chair: Dr. Matthew Smith

Keynote Speaker: Laurent Dubois, Duke University

11:00 am -12:10 pm CONCURRENT SESSION- 2

Session 2-A: Intimate Violence in Duvalierist Literature

Location: Room 8, Sharpe Refectory

Chair: Nathalie Pierre, New York University

Panelists:

- Catherine Fox, Yale University, Marie Vieux-Chauvet's Amour, Colere et Folie.
- Nathalie Pierre, New York University, The Intimacy of Papa Doc and Macoutes in Danticat's Dewbreaker.
- Natalie Leger-Palmer, Cornell University, Palannit: Recovery and Healing in Edwidge Danticat's The Dew Breaker.

Session 2-B: Vodou and Transformation

Location: Birklund Ballroom, Watson Institute

Chair: Claudine Michel, University of California, Santa Barbara

Panelists:

- Dowoti Desir, OGUN Taskforce for Haiti, Theodicy or Theo-Idiocy: Suppression of the Black Racial Imagination in Haitian Vodou.
- Benjamin Hebblethwaite, University of Florida, Gainesville, The Linguistic Methodologies of "Vodou Songs and Texts in Haitian Creole and English.

- Katherine Smith, University of California, Los Angeles, "A Spirit in the City: Gede and the Arts of Urban Vodou"

Session 2-C Roundtable: Haiti after the Earthquake: A critical time to be heard

Location: Joukowsky Forum, Watson Institute

Chair: Karen Ashmore, Lambi Fund

Panelists:

- Marie Marthe Saint Cyr, Lambi Fund
- Leonie Marie Hermantin, Lambi Fund

Session 2-D:

Location: Chancellors Dining Room B, Sharpe Refectory

Chair: Reconstruction or Re-Occupation?: Challenges in the Transformation of Haiti.

Panelists:

- Michael Stein, University of Massachusetts, Amherst, "Mangoes, Sweatshops and Tourism - An Aftershock Doctrine for Reconstruction of Haiti."
- Pierre Orelus, New Mexico State University, "The 2010 Earthquake and Economic and Political Agenda of the: Is it a Reconstruction Project of Re-Occupation of Haiti."
- Dumas Lafontant, University of Southern California, "After the Dust Settles: The Next Practices for the Transformation of Haiti."

Session 2-E: The Wealth of the Poor: Haitian Children and the Earthquake

Location: Library, Watson Institute

Chair: Charlene Desir, NOVA Southeastern University

Panelists:

- Talitha Stam, "Kids on the Frontline of Haiti's Fault line."
- Tess Kulstad, University of Florida, Gainesville, "Post-earthquake fosterage of children on the Haitian Dominican Border: A Study of the impact of the disaster of child fosterage."
- Rachelle Elien and David Descieux, "La marginalisation des jeunes et des enfants: un enjeu pour le développement réel d'Haiti."

Session 2-F: Reimagining the Reconstruction

Location: McKinney Conference Room, Watson Institute

Chair:

Panelists:

- Melanie Mowiniski, Massachusetts College of Liberal Arts, "Reimagining Haiti."
- Carole Frances Lung, California State University, Los Angeles, "Made in Haiti: Pepe, Jonas the Tailor, Frau Fiber and the future of garment in Haiti."
- Laura Heyman, Syracuse University, "Pa Bouje Ankò: Don't Move Again."

Session 2-G: Mirrors of Privilege: Citizenship and Reconstruction from the Revolution to 2010

Location: Chancellors Dining Room A, Sharpe Refectory

Chair: Julia Gaffield, Duke University

Panelists:

- Erin Zavitz, University of Florida, A Convention of Amity and Commerce: Anglo-Haitian Relations 1825-1838.
- Aletha Stahl, Earlham College, Language, Literacy and Liberty: Revolutionary Promises Unfulfilled.
- Elizabeth Colwill, San Diego State University, Mediations on Gender, Language and Privilege, 1793-2010

12:10-1:00 PM LUNCH

Location: Sayles

1:00-2:15 PM CONCURRENT SESSION-3

Session 3-A: What Hope Sounds Like: Music in the Reconstruction of Haiti

Location: Joukowsky Forum, Watson Institute

Chair: Lois Wilcken, La Troupe Makandal

Panelists:

- Lois Wilcken. La Troupe Makandal, The Drum and the Seed: Harnessing Folktales and Music to Heal Haiti's Ecosystem.
- Mary Procopio, Mott Community College, Reconstructing a National and Cultural Identity through the Healing Power of Music: The Ecole de Musique de Musique Sainte Trinite.
- Rebecca Dirksen, University of California, Los Angeles, Rethinking Haitian Mizik Anagaje: Music and Community Revitalization in Pre-and Post Quake Port-au-Prince
- Rebecca Sager, Independent Scholar, Expressive Culture in Crisis: Vodou Singing and the 'New Haiti' before and after the Earthquake of 2010

Session 3-B: Consumed as 'the Other' North America Perception of Haitians on the island and in the United States, 20th Century

Location: Chancellors Dining Room B, Sharpe Refectory

Chair: Leonie Hermantin, Lambi Fund

Panelists:

- Maria Jose Rendon, University of Miami
- Manoucheka Celeste, University of Washington, Seattle
- Yveline Alexis, University of Massachusetts, Amherst

Session 3-C: Fostering Development Projects in Rural Haiti

Location: Library, Watson Institute

Chair:

Panelists:

- Craig Marcklinger, Florida International University, Environmental Initiatives on the Community Level: The case of Borgne, Haiti.
- Andrew Tarter, University of Florida, Gainesville. Thirty Years after an Applied Anthropology Tree Planting Project: A Political Ecology Perspective on behavior and land changes in Rural Haiti.
- Paul Bick, University of Illinois of Chicago, Seeing the Forest and Trees: Survival and Sustainability in the Macaya Watershed.

Session 3-D Roundtable on Post-Earthquake Politics and Reconstruction

Location: Chancellors Dining Room A, Sharpe Refectory

Chair: Leslie Desmangles, Trinity College

Panelists:

- Alex Dupuy, Wesleyan University, Imperialism by Consent: the Interim Haiti Recovery Commission (IHRC) and Haiti.
- Robert Fatton, University of Virginia, Post-Earthquake Politics: Reconstruction Old Practices?
- Robert Maguire, Trinity Washington University, From Chasing Needs to Pursuing Opportunities: The Obama Administration's Approach toward Development in Post-Quake Haiti.

Session 3-E: Displacement Within: Haitian Contemporary Narratives

Location: Birklund Ballroom, Watson Institute

Chair: Christian Flaugh, University of Buffalo, SUNY

Panelists:

- Alessandra Benedicty, City College of New York, Aesthetics and Trauma: Kettly Mars and Gary Victor
- Kaiama Glover, Bernard College/Columbia University, Obstacles to the Haitian Transnational: Legacies of the Past.
- Mariana Past, Dickinson College, Diasporic Haitians as Agents of Change: the Global Stakes of Franketyèn's Pèlrintèf.

Session 3-F: Roundtable: eLearning as a Great Equalizer: Pathways to the Decentralization of Education in Haiti

Location: McKinny Conference Room, Watson Institute

Chair: Patrick Guilbaud, Virginia Tech

Panelists:

- Mario Eliezer Calixte, Virginia Tech
- Fabrice Jenson, Virginia Tech

Session 3-G: The Day the Earth Shook: Mental Health Interventions in Haiti Following the January 12th Earthquake

Location: Room 8, Sharpe Refectory

Chair: Castagna Lacet, Wheelock College

Panelists:

- Guerda Nicolas, University of Miami

- Vanessa Prosper, Children's Hospital Boston
- Gemima St. Louis, SPARK Center, Boston Medical Center

2:15-2:30 PM Coffee Break

Location: Lobby of the Watson Institute

2:40-3:55 pm CONCURRENT SESSIONS 4

Session 4-A: Creating a Network of Haitian Mental Health Professionals

Location: McKinney Conference Room, Watson Institute

Chair: Guerda Nicolas, University of Miami

Panelists:

- Marie Claude Rigaud, Association of Haitian Physicians Abroad
- Richard Douyon, University of Miami
- Ralph Saintort, Konbit Sante

Session 4-B: Roundtable: Republic of 10,000 NGOs Roles and Impacts of NGOs following Haiti's Earthquake

Location: Chancellors Dining Room A, Sharpe Refectory

Chair: François Pierre Louis, Queens College, CUNY

Panelists:

- Mark Schuller, York College, CUNY
- Carolle Charles, Baruch Colleg, CUNY
- Alix Cantave, William Monroe Trotter Institute
- Nancy Dorsainville, United Nations Special Envoy for Haiti
- Tatiana Wah, Columbia University

Session 4-C: Fiction haïtiennes contemporaines: écrire la violence quotidienne

Location: Chancellors Dining Room B, Sharpe Refectory

Chair: Marie-José Nzengou-Tayo, University of West Indies, Mona

Panelists:

- Marie-José Nzengou-Tayo, University of West Indies, Mona, Gary Victor et l'impossible Construction d'Haïti
- Julia Borst, University of Hamburg, Germany, Lyonel Trouillot et les débordements de la violence.
- Marie-Agnès Sourieau, Fairfield University, Yanik Lahens et les répercussions linguistiques de la violence.

Session 4-D: Roundtable: Haitian Libraries Today and their Role in Creating a Stronger Future

Location: Joukowsky Forum, Watson Institute

Chair: Brooke Wooldridge, Digital Caribbean Library

Panelists:

- Dominique Coulombe, Brown University
- Ted Widmer, Brown University
- Elizabeth Pierre-Louis, FOKAL

- Françoise Beaulieu-Thybulle, Bibliothèque Nationale d'Haïti

Session 4-E: Power, Politics, and the Youth in Haiti

Location: Library, Watson Institute

Chair: Crystal Andrea Felima, Cornell University

Panelists:

- Edwidge Crevecoeur-Bryant, University of Central Florida, The Knowledge Base of Haitian Students.
- Henriette Lunde, FAFO-Institute for Applied International Studies, Haitian Youths Perception of Power, Politics and Democratic Participation.
- Amelia Hintzen, University of Miami, Beyond Restavek: The Historical Development of Child Domestic in 20th Century Haiti.

Session 4-F: The Environment and Rebuilding

Location: Room 8, Sharpe Refectory

Chair:

Panelists:

- Carlo Previl, Université du Québec à Montréal, Repères Pour La Reporoblématisation de la Question Environnmentale en Haïti.
- Dieulermesson Petit Frere, Université d'Etat d'Haïti, (Re) penser Haïti aujourd'hui: un brévaire pour la re-construction.
- Hortense Dossous-Parris, Independent Scholar, Haiti's Structural Rebuilding.

Session 4-G: Health and Infrastructural Building in the Reconstruction

Location: Birklund Conference, Watson Institute

Chair:

Panelists:

- Mimi Sheller, Drexel University, Supporting Haitian Infrastructure Reconstruction with Local Knowledge: A Case Study Focusing on Water Sanitation in Léogâne.
- Patrick Richard, George Washington University, Estimating Healthcare Workforce Shortage and Associated Costs in Haiti.
- Samantha Jordan, Tufts University School of Dental Medicine, Improving Oral Health in Haiti: Preliminary Assessment Strategies for Implementing Guidelines for an International Salt Fluoridation Project.

4:15 -5:45 PM Plenary Session I: Renewing the Promise: Challenges and Opportunities for Reconstruction

Location:

Chair:

Panelists:

- Tatiana Wah, Columbia University
- Josiane Hudicourt Barnes, Independent Scholar
- François Pierre-Louis, Queens College, CUNY

▪Katleen Felix, FONKOZE

7:00-9:00 PM Book Launch and Cultural Event
Location: John Hay Library

Book Launch Authors Confirmed

Author/Book Description	Affiliation & Contact Information
Léger, Frenand. Pawòl lakay: Haitian-Creole Language and Culture for Beginners and Intermediate Learners. Coconut Creek, Florida: Educa Vision Inc. 400 pages. ISBN: 1-58432-687-5. This Kreyòl textbook is designed for beginners to intermediate learners at the college level. It is the most comprehensive resource for the teaching and learning of Kreyòl available on the market.	Frenand Leger PhD student in French Lit University of Toronto Department of French Toronto, Ontario - Canada freudyamiejah2000@yahoo.fr
Lunde, Henriette, Young Haitian Labour Migrants – Risks and opportunities in Haiti and in the Dominican Republic. Oslo: Fafo. 56 pages. ISBN 978-82-7422-739-2. This study, based on interviews with experienced and potential youth migrants, analyzes the factors that impact the decision to migrate. It also and looks at how Haitian youth experience the risks and opportunities arising from migration. Available online at http://www.faf.no/pub/rapp/20168/index.html	Henriette Lunde, Researcher Fafo - Institute for Applied International Studies Oslo, Norway Henriette.Lunde@faf.no
Marxsen, Patti, Tales from the Heart of Haiti. Coconut Creek, Florida: Educa Vision, Inc. 121 pages. ISBN 13: 978-1-58432-615-1. This collection of short stories explores how outsiders in Haiti only understand boundaries and connections when they enter into that mysterious world of Haitian feeling, Haitian spirituality, Haitian violence, and Haitian loss. Meet the author at www.pattimarxsen.net	Patti M. Marxsen Independent Writer/Translator Thun, Switzerland thewritewoman@gmail.com
Nicolas, Guerda. Social Networks and the Mental Health of Haitian Immigrants. Coconut Creek, Florida: Educa Vision Inc. 275 pages. ISBN: 1-58432-686-7. Haitian immigration to the U.S. is steadily increasing. Stressors of discrimination and prejudice, combined with acculturation, may predispose Haitians to mental health problems. Nicolas elucidates the lives of Haitian immigrants through research at the intersection of culture, social networks, and mental health. Includes recommendations for culturally sensitive and effective services.	Guerda Nicholas Chairperson, Department of Educational and Psychological Studies University of Miami, Coral Gables nguerda@miami.edu
Polyné, Millery. From Douglass to Duvalier: U.S. African Americans, Haiti and Pan Americanism, 1870-1964. Gainesville, Florida: University Press of Florida. 292 pages. ISBN: 0-8130-3472-8 / 978-0-8130-3472-0. An examination of the creative and critical ways African Americans and Haitians have engaged the idealized tenets of Pan Americanism in order to strengthen Haiti's social, economic, and political growth and stability. www.millerypolyne.com	Millery Polyné Asst Prof of American Studies New York University Gallatin School for Individualized Study New York, NY 10003 millery.polyne@nyu.edu
Popkin, Jeremy D. You Are All Free. Cambridge: Cambridge University Press. 280 pages. ISBN: 978-0-52151-722-5 / 978-0-	Jeremy D. Popkin

52173-194-2. This book provides the first complete account of events that led to the abolition of slavery in Saint-Domingue (1793) and revolutionary France (1794), and also to the destruction of Cap Français and the first refugee crisis in the United States. http://www.cambridge.org/catalogue	Professor of History Dept of History University of Kentucky Lexington, Kentucky popkin@uky.edu
Spears, Arthur K. and Carole M. Berotte Joseph, eds. Foreword by Marc Prou. The Haitian Creole Language: History, Structure, Use, and Education. Lanham, Maryland: Lexington Books (Division of Rowman & Littlefield). 319 Pages. ISBN: 978-0-7391-1236-6. This is the first book that deals broadly with a language that has lived too long in the shadow of French. With contributions by the leading scholars in the study of Creole, this is an indispensable tool for those seeking knowledge about the centrality of language in the affairs of Haiti, its people, and its Diaspora.	Carole M. Berotte Joseph President Mass Bay Community College cjoseph@massbay.edu

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 13, 2010

8:00 am – 4:30 pm Registration
Location: Lobby of the Watson Institute

8:00 am -9:00 am Emerging Scholars Breakfast
Location: TBD

8:00 am -9:15 am CONCURRENT SESSIONS-5

Session 5-A: (Re) Distribution, Debt and Development

Location: Classroom 138, Watson Institute

Chair: Tatiana Wah, Columbia University

Panelists:

- David Adams, Goucher College, (RE) Distribution in Haiti.
- Andrés Fabián Henao Castro, University of Massachusetts, Amherst, Haiti: The State of Debt.

Session 5-B: Vodou represented in the Literature on Haiti

Location: Classroom 114, Watson Institute

Chair: Patti Marxsen, Independent Scholar

Panelists:

- Sarah Juliet Lauro, University of California, Davis, Reimagining the Zombie in Haitian Literature.
- Anne Marie Stachura, University of Virginia, Healing the Wounded (Post) Nation: Vodun and Survival in Isabel Allende's La isla bajo el mar.

Session 5-C: Transnationalism and Crisis

Location: Birklund Ballroom, Watson Institute

Chair:

Panelists:

- Pierre Orelus, New Mexico State University, Oppressed by a Different name the Counter Story of a Transnational Subject of Color.
- Toni Pressley-Sanon, Pennsylvania State University and Reverend Djalòki Dessables, The Metaphysical Crisis of Haiti.

Session 5-D: From the Other Side: Perspectives on the Haitian Diaspora

Location: Joukowsky Forum, Watson Institute

Chair: Mary Procopio, Mott Community College

Panelists:

- Celia Weiss Bambara, University of Illinois, Chicago, The Politics of Transfiguration: Translation, "Race," Class and Movement in the Diaspora.
- Sophonie Joseph, Columbia University, (Re) Constructing the Identities of Youth in the Haitian Diaspora.
- Herrica Telus, University of South Florida, I feel like an Ignorant Haitian: Ethnic Renewal Among Second Generation Haitian Women Post Quake Haiti.

Session 5-E:

Location: Room 116, Watson Institute

Chair: Guitèle Nicoleau,

Panelist:

- Patrick Sylvain, Brown University, The Violence of Executive Silence and The Post-Earthquake Addressivity of Structural Vulnerability.
- Leara Rhodes, University of Georgia Athens, Disaster News: How Social Media was used in Haiti after the Earthquake.
- Jane Regan, UWI- CARIMAC, Change-Making Media? The New Ayiti Kale Je Media Watchdog Consortium.

Session 5-F Roundtable: Early Literacy and Development for Haitians in Haiti

Location: McKinney Conference Room

Chair: Jane Alison Hale, Brandeis University

Panelists:

- Bronwen J. Anders, University of California, San Diego
- Carine M. Luxame, Boston Community Medical Group
- Nicole Prudent, Haitian Health Institute/Boston Medical Institute

Session 5-G: Documentary Kimbala-Hold On

Location: Classroom 112, Watson Institute

Discussants: Carolyn Armstrong and Stephen Anunson, Bel Son productions

About:

9:30- 10:45 am

Plenary Session II: Foundations of Haiti: The Telescope of History

Location:

Chair: Dr. Matthew Smith, University of the West Indies, Mona
▪ Patrick Bellegarde-Smith, University of Wisconsin, Milwaukee

11:00 am -12:10 pm CONCURRENT SESSION- 6

Session 6-A:

Location: Room 114, Watson Institute

Chair: Carolle Charles, Baruch College

Panelists:

- Kona Shen, Brown University, Failing Haiti: How Blame, Disasters and Foreign Aid have destroyed the Haitian Environment
- Mark Schuller, York College, CUNY, Sowing Seeds of Hope or Seeds of Dependence NGOs and the Camp Committees.

Session 6-B: Nineteenth Century Aftershocks: The Revolution and the Cap Haitian Earthquake

Location: Room 116, Watson Institute

Chair:

Panelists:

- Raj Chetty, University of Washington, Seattle, Staging the Haitian Revolution: An Analysis of Caribbean and U.S. Representations.
- Matthew J. Smith, University of the West Indies, Mona, One Common Ruin: The 1842 Earthquake in Haiti and its Aftermath

6-C Roundtable: It Takes a Mountain to Crush a Haitian Woman: Facing Gender Issues in the Earthquake's Aftermath

Location: Birklund Ballroom, Watson Institute

Chair: Régine Michelle Jean-Charles, Boston College

Panelists:

- Alice Baker, PotoFanm+Fi
- Taina Bien-Aimé, Equality Now
- Anne-Christine d'Adesky, World Pulse
- Nancy Dorsinville, United Nations Special Envoy

Session 6-D: Mediating Trauma: Religion in Post Earthquake Haiti

Location: McKinney Conference Room, Watson Institute

Chair: Leslie Desmangles, Trinity College

Panelists:

- Elizabeth McAlister
- Karen Richman
- Leslie Desmangles

Session 6-E: Roundtable: Ayisyen Ede Ayisyen: The Necessity for Haitian Leadership in Reconstruction

Location: Joukowsky Forum, Watson Institute

Chair: Bob Sinclair, University of Massachusetts, Amherst

Panelists:

- Marc Prou, University of Massachusetts, Boston
- Alix Cantave, William Monroe Trotter Institute
- Tatiana Wah, Columbia University
- Guerda Nicolas, University of Miami
- Steve Bornemeier, Save the Children

Session 6-F:

Location: Classroom 114, Watson Institute

Chair: LeGrace Benson, Arts of Haiti Project

Panelists:

- John Cussans, Chelsea College of Art and Design, London, Ti Moun Rezistans and the Tele Geto project.
- María de Jesús Cordero, Utah State University, Art on the Haitian/Dominican Border: A Journey to Rio Limpio and Batey Libertad.

6-G: Documentary Kimbala-Hold On

Location: Classroom 112, Watson Institute

Discussants: Carolyn Armstrong and Stephen Anunson, Bel Son productions

About:

12:10-1:00 PM LUNCH

Location: Sayles

1:00-2:15 PM Concurrent Session 7

Session 7-A: Refusing the Legacies of Colonialism: A Listening Session

Location: Classroom 116, Watson Institute

Chair: Mary Renda, Mount Holyoke College

Description:

Session 7-B: Roundtable: Population and Political Economy under Duvalier

Location: Classroom 114, Watson Institute

Chair: Yveline Alexis

Panelists:

- Adam M. Silvia, Florida International University
- Yveline Alexis, University of Massachusetts, Amherst
- Amelia Hintzen, University of Miami

Session 7-C: A Community College Student's Service in Haiti: A Service Learning Experience

Location: Birklund Ballroom, Watson Institute

Chair: Marie Lourdes Elgirus, MassBay Community College

Panelist

- Jane O'Brien Fredericks, MassBay Community College

- Carole Berotte Joseph, MassBay Community College

Session 7-D: Reading Under the Rubble: Prospects for University re-development after the Earthquake

Location: Joukowsky Forum, Watson Institute

Chair: Marc Prou, University of Massachusetts, Boston

Panelists:

- Antoine Atouriste, Universite d'Etat d'Haiti, Tertiary Education in Haiti: Reform, Recovery and Reconstruction Assessment of the Post Earthquake Learning Environment in Haiti
- Patrick Guilbaud, Virginia Tech, ESIH in a Post-Quake Haiti.

Session 7-E: Agriculture and Food Security after January 12th

Location: McKinney Conference Room, Watson Institute

Chair:

Panelists:

- Marc J. Cohen, Oxfam America, Down on the Farm: The Role of Agriculture and Food Security in Haiti's Post-earthquake Reconstruction.
- Jessica Hsu, California Institute of Integral Studies, Food Sovereignty: Poverty, Violence and Centered Affects.

Session 7-F Gender Reconstructions in Haitian Literature and Performance

Location: Classroom 138, Watson Institute

Chair: Joelle Vitiello

Panelists:

- Joelle Vitiello, Macalester University, Les petites filles sont des horologes: Writing, Engagement and Silence in the Works of Marie Chauvet, Yanick Jean, Paulette
- Gabrielle Civil, St. Catherine University, Reconstructing Silence: Jacqueline Beagué-Rosier A vol'dombre as Poetry/Translation/Performance.
- Omise'ke Natasha Tinsley, University of Minnesota, Dancing with Ezili: Afro Caribbean Religions and Haitian Representations of Gender Fluidity.

Session 7-G: Documentary: Ghetto Biennale Film Screening

Location: Classroom 112, Watson Institute

Discussants: Toni Pressley-Sanon, Pennsylvania State University

About:

2:15-2:30 PM Coffee Break

Location: Lobby of the Watson Institute

2:45-4:00 pm Concurrent Session 8

Session 8-A:

Location: Classroom 138, Watson Institute

Chair:

Panelists:

- Darline Alexis, Université Quisqueya, Haïti: Catastrophes naturelles et témoignages littéraires.
- Hananie Albert, Brown University, Rumors or, Aubaaltern Speech in the Age of Global Fragmentation.

Session 8-B:

Location: Birklund Ballroom, Watson Institute

Chair:

Panelists:

- Fernand Léger, University of Toronto, Wòl lang Kreyòl la nan pwosesis (re)konstikasyon Ayiti a.
- Dionissi Aliprantis, Haiti Outreach, Community Building as a Model for NGOs in Haiti
- Harley Etienne, Georgia Institute of Technology, Comprehensive Urban Planning and the Socio-Economic Impacts of the 2010 Haitian Earthquake.

Session 8-C: Roundtable: Duke's Haiti Lab and Dialogues on Haitian Patrimony

Location: Joukowsky Forum, Watson Institute

Chair: Deborah Jenson, Duke University

Panelists:

- Deborah Jenson, Duke University, Reclaiming the Genius of Dessalines for Haitian Education.
- Jean Casimir, Université d'Etat Haïti, Un séminaire virtuel entre Duke et l'Université d'Etat Haïti, "La production littéraire de Toussaint Louverture et Jean Jacques Dessalines"
- Laurent Dubois, Duke University, Portals, Blogs and Books, Accessing Foundational Haitian Texts.
- Jacques Pierre, Duke University, La Remise en Créole de texts fondateurs.

Session 8-D:

Location: Room 114, Watson Institute

Chair:

Panelists:

- Pamela Hall, Barry University and Charlene Desir, NOVA Southeastern University, Literacy Initiative for Empowerment: Haitian High School Students in South Florida use Photovoice Methodology for Empowerment.
- Debra Di Nola, University of Phoenix, A Qualitative Phenomenological Study of Illiteracy in Haiti.

Session 8-E: Hope, Healing, and the Way Forward

Location: Room 116, Watson Institute

Chair:

Panelists:

- Valerie Kaussen, University of Missouri-Columbia, Columbia Missouri, The After-Life of Disaster: Social Death and Representations in Post-Earthquake Haiti
- Patricia Bingue, Haiti: Hopes to be born again - Socially and Culturally speaking.
- Laurie Williams, Independent Scholar, Haiti's Hope and Healing through the Arts.

Session 8-F Roundtable: The psychological Impact of the January 12 Earthquake on the lives of Haitians in the United States Implications for research and practice

Location: McKinney Conference Room, Watson Institute

Chair: Vanessa Prosper, Childrens Hospital Boston

Panelists

- Guerda Nicolas, University of Miami
- Gemima St. Louis, Boston University School of Medicine

Session 8-G: Documentary: The Other Side of the Water: The Journey of a Haitian Rara Band in Brooklyn.

Location: Classroom 112, Watson Institute

Discussants: Jeremy Robins and Magall Damas, University of Chicago

About:

4:15 -5:45 PM Plenary Session III Roundtable: Education for a Renewed Haiti

Location: TBD

Chair:

Panelists:

Marc Prou, University of Massachusetts, Boston

Alix Cantave, William Monroe Trotter Institute

Fritz Deshommes,

Yves Voltaire,

Pierre Michel Laguerre,

6:00 pm-7:00 pm Business Meeting

Location: tbd

8:00 pm – 11:00 pm Annual Banquet

Location: Andrew's Dining Hall