

According to U.S. Census data from 2004, the top five counties in Florida with the highest percentage of people under age 18 living poverty include:

- Putnam County, with 26 % of people under age 18 living in poverty;
- Hardee County, with 25.1 % of people under age 18 living in poverty;
- Hamilton County, with 24.7 % of people under age 18 living in poverty;
- Dixie County, with 24.7 % of people under age 18 living in poverty; and
- Holmes County, with 24.4 % of people under age 18 living in poverty.

