

Tammy P. Smith

45153 Clemmons Rd. Callahan, FL 32011 (904) 879-2689 • tjsmith@gateway.net
<http://plaza.ufl.edu/tpsmith/portfolio/intro.html>

EDUCATION

University of Florida

Currently Enrolled

Curriculum & Instruction Ph.D. program

Emphasis in Educational Technology

Jacksonville University December 1999

Masters of Art in Teaching GPA 4.0

Integrated Learning with Educational Technology

Masters Project Topic: Communication Through Art – Integrating technology & art into the school curriculum

University of North Florida December 1995

Teacher Certification Program – Certified Art K-12

University of North Florida December 1991

Bachelor of Fine Arts GPA 3.42

Florida Community College at Jacksonville

Associate in Arts GPA 3.34

December 1989

EMPLOYMENT

Nassau County School Board

Hilliard Elementary School – Hilliard, Florida – November 2000 to Present

Curriculum Resource Teacher – July 2002 to Present

Technology Teacher/Coordinator

Callahan Middle School – Callahan, Florida – 1995 to November 2000

Art Teacher 6th, 7th & 8th grades

Technology Coordinator 1999-2000

Jacksonville University

Adjunct Professor – Educational Technology Program – Fall 2001

Website Development

Adjunct Professor – Educational Technology Program – Fall 2000

Technology & Telecommunications Applications

Summer Institute Faculty- Educational Technology Program – Summer 2000

The Christian Focus Newspaper – Orange Park, Florida – 1994

Graphic Designer/Production Manager

Designed and produced 32 page monthly publication

The Charlton County Herald – Folkston, Georgia – 1993

Designed computer template for weekly community newspaper.

Financial News & Daily Record – Jacksonville, Florida – 1992-1993

Printing Division, Graphic Designer/Typesetter

PROFESSIONAL ORGANIZATIONS

- ASCD – Association for Supervision and Curriculum Development
- ISTE – International Society for Technology Education
- International Visual Literacy Association
- Alpha Delta Kappa – Teacher Sorority (1998 – 2000)

RECOGNITIONS & AWARDS

- National Gallery of Art – Cyberspace Odyssey 2000 Participant – July, 2001
One of eighteen chosen nation-wide to create web resources integrating art into school curriculum
- Outstanding Masters of Art in Teaching Graduate Student – 1999-2000
Jacksonville University Educational Technology Program
- National Gallery of Art – Teacher Institute Participant – June, 1999
One of fifty chosen nation-wide
- Callahan Middle School 1995-96 First Year Teacher of the Year
- 1995 Grant Award Winner* “Widening Our Horizons – A Printmaking Workshop”
- 1996 Grant Award Winner* “The Callahan Community – A Mural of Past, Present and Future” Grant used to construct 5’ x 36’ mosaic tile mural for the front of Callahan Middle School.

Both grants were sponsored by Cultural Council of Greater Jacksonville*

WORKSHOPS PRESENTED

- Technology Trainer for Schultz Center's HB-1 Grant – Jacksonville, FL 2003
Educational Technology Certificates of Mastery. Designed and taught Digital Writing portion of course.
- Technology for Administrators – Nassau County Professional Development Workshop – October, 2002
- Integrating Technology into the teaching of the Holocaust – June, 2002
University of Florida Summer Holocaust Institute
- Using databases in the classroom – School Based Professional development workshops October, 2001
- The Beat Generation – The Art & Culture of the 50s & 60s
Nassau County Professional Development Workshop – October, 1999
- Technology Tips for the Classroom Teacher – Callahan Middle School Improvement Day

RESEARCH INTERESTS

- Change theory and the successful implementation of technological innovations.
- Technology integration in the K-12 classroom
- Teacher technology training.
- Administrative influence on both student and teacher technology use in schools. Primarily focusing on the elementary level.