ID Consultation: Initial Meeting Interview Questions

1. Who is the target audience for this course? Full-time ProTeach? Inservice Teachers?

2. What are the overarching goals of this course?

3. Have you taught this class face-to-face?

4. If yes, what are some components that you would like to preserve for the online version? Activities? Readings? Videos? Exams?

5. When you envision your course, do you see it in: Modular form – not date-dependent, Weekly – date-dependent, None of the above.

6. How long will your course run? 8 weeks? 12? Other?

7. Would you like to have students participate in collaborative activities in your online class?

8. Are you interested in using web conferencing tools, like Elluminate?

9. Do you expect to have a large (20+) enrollment for this course?

10. Will other instructors or graduate assistants teach this course?

11. Will your course require any student purchases of textbooks, software, course packs, etc.?

12. Will you have grant-funded or non-UF students taking your course?

13. Will your course most likely be eight, twelve or sixteen weeks long?